CLOUDBURST LANDS
COW IN KITCHEN
OF MR. BACA
Nogal Canyon Near San Antonio Scene of Terrific Downpour Which Does Considerable Damage.

A terrific cloudburst occurred in Nogal Canyon near San Antonio, Socorro county, at about 7 o'clock Saturday night, according to Col. A. H.
Hilton of San Antonio and Socorro, who is in the city today.
A remarkable feature of the cloudburst and the resulting ten-foot high flood which it sent hurtling down the canyon, was the fact that eight cows were carried along for nearly seventy-five miles, four of them being taken clear into the Rio Grande, one of the animals landing half across the kitchen table in the kitchen of Salamon Baca, whose house was in the path of the torrent.
John Bianchi's expensive reservoir was washed out and the Santa Fe tracks were covered for a distance of 1,500 feet. Silt was left on gardens five feet deep, the worst damage being done to the gardens, while a number of fences were washed away.
The water tore out a new arroyo and for a mile across the flats where none had been before was left a trail of big boulders thirty feet in width—the trail, not the boulders. The roar of the flood was heard plainly in Carthage.

Good Time from Mountaintop.
Colonel Hilton reports the road from Mountaintop to the valley in excellent shape. He left Mountaintop at 4:45 p. m. Saturday and arrived in San Antonio at 8:45 p. m. "You can easily make twenty miles an hour in an auto on the stretch over the Jornada del Muerto from Schulte to Carthage," said the colonel.

MRS. ALICE MAUSARD
WEDS A. H. CARROLL
A wedding of considerable interest to many Albuquerque people took place Saturday evening at 9 o'clock in the Baptist parsonage, when Rev.
P. W. Longfellow married Mrs. Alice Mausard and Mr. A. H. Carroll. Mr.
Carroll has been for two years lessee and manager of the Mausard Mills and has been remarkably successful in placing the enterprise on its feet. Within less than two years he has succeeded in building up a substantial local market and has also created a large outside territory, adding costly improvements from time to time. After July 1 the mills will be operated under their own power, a plant now being installed.
Mrs. Mausard is an estimable Albuquerque lady and for years has been prominent as a worker in Adah Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Local friends of the newlyweds will wish them much happiness in their married life.

WEDDING IN PRESCOTT
IS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Regarding a wedding of considerable interest in Albuquerque because the bride spent several months here recently, the Prescott Journal Miner of a recent date, says:
"Miss Carolyn Triplett and Joe P. Metz were quietly married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev.
J. W. Long."
"Miss Triplett and her sister have been spending the winter months in Albuquerque, and were on their way to Phoenix and then to Denver to spend the summer stopping here for a few days. The bride and groom are both Keweenawians and the wedding is the culmination of an interesting romance which started two years ago, when Miss Triplett went south to spend the winter, and met Mr. Metz who was visiting an old college chum.

"The bride is an attractive and respected girl and daughter of Mr.
S. B. Triplett, president of the People's Club of Stamping Ground, Ky.
Mr. Metz is a popular young business man of Prescott. He came to this city about three months ago and has made many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Metz will be at home for the present at 109 South Pleasant street."
